Judges 6 | 11 February 2024 | Mr Abraham Goh

Sermon Reflection Questions

1. Read Judges 6:11-24 as a group, then compare it with Exodus 3. Can you find similarities between the passages?

| Similarity | Gideon (verse reference) | Moses (verse reference) |
|------------|--------------------------|-------------------------|

2. What do the similarities tell you about the author's intent when writing about Gideon?
3. What are the false gods which are demanding that you worship them alongside the one true God?
4. "To ask for a sign when God has already revealed his will reflects an immature faith and perhaps, in certain circumstances, a greater willingness to disobey than to obey." (K. Lawson Younger Jr., NIV Application Commentary Judges, Ruth)
Do we test God by asking for signs about things he has already revealed to us?
5. Are there parts of your life where you need to ask God to point you to his Son so that you can trust more fully in his promises?
