When the Curtain Tore

Mark 15:37-38 | 15 November 2026 | Rev Khoo Kay Huat

Sermon Points

1. We can go to heaven. Through the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ, the way to eternal life has been opened to us.
2. Heaven can come to us. Through the Holy Spirit, we can experience God's presence and power in our lives today.
3. We can go to Him. Beyond receiving God's blessings, we have been given the privilege of drawing near to the Father and enjoying communion with Him.

Group Discussion Questions

1. When Jesus died, the curtain of the Temple was torn in two from top to bottom. What does this reveal about what Jesus has accomplished for us, and how does knowing that we have access to eternal life shape the way we live today?
2. We often pray for God's Kingdom to come and His will to be done on earth as it is in heaven. How have you experienced God's presence, power or grace in your life, whether through extraordinary circumstances or ordinary moments?
3. In the sermon, prayer was compared to accessing a heavenly storeroom. When you reflect on your own prayer life, how much of it revolves around asking God for things, compared with simply spending time in His presence? What might it mean for you to move beyond intercession into deeper intimacy with God?
4. Jesus has not merely given us access to His blessings, but to the Father Himself (Ephesians 2:18). What is one practical change you can make to cultivate a deeper communion with God, both personally and as a group?
