

SERMON REFLECTIONS

Everyday life. Life. Resurrection Life. Resurrection Life Every Day

John 11:23-26 | 20 September 2026 | Rev Dr Aaron Tay

Reflection Questions

1. John 10:10 (NRSV) “The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life, and have it abundantly.”
 - a) What do you think a normal person in Singapore would define as an abundant life?
 - b) What is abundant life to you?
 - c) What does the thief (could be the devil or the world) steal, kill and destroy? Think of concrete things which has been stolen, killed and destroyed by the thief.
 - d) What do you think the abundant life promised by Jesus looks like?
2. In the sermon, Pastor Aaron preached about 4 occasions when people might be challenged to consider the bigger questions about life (What is the point of life? What is the significance of our life? Have I made a difference? Have I told my family often enough that I love them? What does Death mean? What is the reason for pain and suffering? Is there anything beyond this life?).

These are the 4 occasions – when:

- We had a near-death experience,
- Something tragic happened to us or our close family member,
- We are in a rut of life,
- We are in a transition point of life.

SERMON REFLECTIONS

Have you had any of the above experiences? Did it lead you to ask one or more of the bigger issues of life? If so, would you be able to share with your group about what you have perceived on your own, or learnt/received from God?

3. John 10:28 “I give them eternal life, and they will never perish. No one will snatch them out of my hand.”

You want to share with someone you love about eternal life.

- a) How would you explain what is eternal life (according to God’s Word)?
 - b) Before hearing today’s sermon, how would you persuade your listener to want this gift of eternal life?
 - c) What did Pastor Aaron say in his sermon, would be the best way to persuade your listener to desire the gift of eternal life?
4. Ephesians 1:19-20 “and what is the immeasurable greatness of His power for us who believe, according to the working of His great power. God put this power to work in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, ...” [can see also Philippians 3:10]

Can we experience the resurrection power of God in our everyday life? If so, how?
