

SERMON REFLECTIONS

The Most Dangerous Prayer a Christian Can Pray

Psalm 26:2 | 2 November 2025 | Rev Timothy Yong

Reflection Questions

1. When you hear the words, “Examine me, O Lord,” what’s your honest first reaction? Does that prayer feel exciting, scary, or uncomfortable — and why do you think that is?
2. We talked about how we often put “filters” over our lives, trying to look better than we really are. What are some of those filters you tend to use? How might letting God remove those filters actually bring you more peace and freedom?
3. God doesn’t expose us to shame us, He does it to change us.

What’s one area of your life right now that you sense God wants to transform or refine? What would it look like to say, “God, have Your way in me,” in that specific area this week?
