

SERMON REFLECTIONS

From Regrets to New Beginnings

2 Cor 7:8-11 | 31 Dec 2023 | Rev Timothy Yong

Sermon Reflection Questions:

1. How do you distinguish between worldly grief and godly grief when reflecting on past regrets? What signs or feelings help you recognize the difference between the two, and how might acknowledging this distinction guide your path towards healing?
2. In what ways have you experienced the transformative power of godly grief leading to repentance and a fresh start? Reflect on a personal experience where confronting regrets or mistakes has propelled you towards new beginnings and a deeper connection with God.
3. Reflecting on Paul's encouragement in these verses, what practical steps can you adopt to navigate through past regrets in a way that fosters godly grief, leading to repentance and renewal? How can this process impact your relationships with others and your journey of faith?
