

SERMON REFLECTIONS

4 Leaders, 1 LORD

Daniel 7 | 3 March 2025 | Rev Dr Aaron Tay

Reflection Questions

1. Read Daniel 7 aloud (perhaps 2 to 3 verses per DG member).

Was there anything from the chapter that was new to you, or had an impact on you? Was there anything that raised more questions in your mind?

2. You may refer to the following Bible passages that touch on the sovereignty of God:

Genesis 50:20

Psalms 135:5-6

Proverbs 16:9

Isaiah 46:8-11

Romans 8:28

How does knowing that God is sovereign over all – that He is above all and rules over all things all the time – affect the way you live your life?

3. How can the promise of God that in the end the wicked will be judged and the saints will reign with Jesus bring hope to the people who are suffering in the present?
4. If we think of the 4 beasts not merely as empires but as types of leaders, consider the leaders that you know .. whether a national leader, or at your workplace, or church, or even yourself.

What are some of this leader's qualities which we can consider as good and godly, which we can learn from?

SERMON REFLECTIONS

If we know of a bad leader, why do we consider the leader to be bad – what are the qualities which we should avoid and learn not to do?

5. What are your thoughts on the following exhortation by Bishop (Emeritus) Dr Gordon Wong?

“Though you cannot change the “monsters”, do not succumb to them. Even if you cannot change them, you must not let them change you. Do not succumb by becoming one of them yourself.”
